3. Sponsors and state officers may attend free of charge. All other delegates, including chaperones, must pay the full price.
4. Phase I Convention Registration will be February 10 – March 24. The cost per student is $130. Every school and student MUST be in good standing to register. Please note: Payment MUST be made at the time of registration – schools will not be considered “registered” until payment is received.
5. Once the registrations have been processed, the Convention Advisor will determine if there are additional spaces available. March 24 will begin Phase II Convention Registration. At this point, properly registered chapters may register additional student delegates for $140 and students who had not previously joined GJCL at a cost of $144, which will include their dues. This would include any chapters that register with GJCL between February 1 and March 23. This registration will close on April 2nd or when all spots are filled. Again, payment is required at the time of registration.
6. From April 3 – 18, schools and students that did not register may do so, if there is space available. The cost will be $150 per student (+ $4 dues if owed.)
7. Once registered sponsors may make substitutions, PROVIDED THAT the substitution is the same sex as the student he/she is substituting for. Any changes made after April 1st will incur a $20 processing fee per change.
8. Cancellations with a refund will be honored until March 24. After that, there will be NO refunds.
9. Please note that while convention registration dates change, Papers of Candidacy, Modern Myths, Slogans, etc. as outlined below, have an April 1st deadline.
10. Questions regarding convention should be directed to Liz Bouis (lizbouis@me.com).

Rules and Regulations

Delegates will adhere to all Rock Eagle rules. Rock Eagle security will be on duty 24 hours a day. Regulations, which will be in effect during the convention, are:

1. Your own nametag must be worn at all times. In the case when a nametag cannot be worn in a competition, students will be required to carry their nametag with them to the event. Nametags should be worn appropriately, i.e. around the neck.
2. JCL delegates are not allowed to drive vehicles during convention.
3. No delegate may leave the Rock Eagle convention site until the end of convention.
4. The use or possession of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, illegal drugs, weapons or fireworks is strictly prohibited. Possession of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs or fireworks constitutes a major infraction of the rules and delegates will be sent home at their parents’ expense.
5. Under no circumstances may window screens be removed. There will be a $25 removal charge.

6. Any damage of Rock Eagle property will not be tolerated. Disciplinary action will include financial remuneration for such damage or theft. All areas of the campus must be left in the same condition as found on arrival.
7. Members of the opposite sex are not permitted in the cabins except during Fellowship.
8. All JCL delegates must be in their assigned cabins at curfew.
9. It is recommended that no valuables be brought to Rock Eagle, as there is no method for securing these items.
10. Attendance at all general assemblies is mandatory for all delegates, chaperones and sponsors.
11. Fellowship and Chapter Caucus are mandatory for all delegates, sponsors and chaperones.
12. Appropriate shirts and shoes MUST be worn in the Dining Hall. (Please remind your students of this after the Roman Procession...some young men do not have shirts on under their togas!)
13. Students not wearing their nametags will not be admitted into the Dances.
14. Swimming is prohibited.
15. Sponsors, chaperones and SCL members will behave in a manner that will set an example for all students at the convention and will adhere to all rules pertaining to the convention.
16. If an infraction to the rules warrants, the State Chair has the authority to convene a Discipline Committee made up of GJCL Committee members to adjudicate the situation.
17. Sponsors, chaperones, SCL members and JCL delegates who fail to adhere to all convention rules will be notified after the Fall Planning Meeting of the GJCL Executive Board as to whether or not they will be allowed to attend the following year's convention.
18. Grills are not allowed on the Rock Eagle campus.

Guidelines for Sponsors and Chaperones

All sponsors are responsible for finding chaperones for their delegates; there must be a male chaperone for every 12 boys and a female chaperone for every 12 girls. Please note that you may be housed with delegates and/or chaperones from different schools.

1. Prior to convention, review with your students the important contents of this document, stressing the major rules of conduct and activities that are available for students at the convention.
2. Dress Code: Students are expected to adhere to their school's dress code. It will be the sponsor's responsibility to enforce that it is being followed. Shoes must be worn at all times, except in the cabins. During Dances all clothes must be school appropriate. The theme of Friday night's dance is Toga Night, and the Saturday Night Dance is Semi-Formal.
3. Sponsors will pick up registration packets for their entire group upon arrival at Rock Eagle.
4. Attendance of all sponsors at one of the Friday Sponsors' Meeting is mandatory (2:30 pm in Hastings Hall or 4:00 pm at JCL Headquarters), as well as the second meeting (Sunday - 7:30 a.m. - dining hall). Chaperones are welcome at all meetings but not required.

5. While at the convention sponsors should keep in contact with their students and discuss the next day's activities with them.
6. Sponsors should take attendance at assemblies and correct any inappropriate behavior.
7. It is the responsibility of every sponsor/chaperone to see to it that curfew is observed by all delegates.
8. Cabin check requires that each chaperone or sponsor check to see that the students for whom he is responsible are present. Legally, sponsors and chaperones are in loco parentis and therefore are responsible for their students' welfare and behavior.
9. Should a delegate not be in his/her cabin at curfew, the sponsor/chaperone should contact the state chair immediately.
10. For discipline and security reasons, the sponsors and chaperones must patrol the cabins several times a day.
11. Be sure that your students are awake in sufficient time each morning to be prompt at all activities.
12. Fellowship and Chapter Caucus are mandatory for all sponsors and chaperones as well as delegates.
13. Meal tickets: All delegates, both student and adult, will receive their own swipe card for meals in the Dining Hall. These will be good for one swipe at each of the five meals served during the convention. Delegates will need to take care to safeguard these throughout the weekend. Sponsors will NOT need to collect these at the end of the convention.

Scholarships

The Georgia Junior Classical League is seeking worthy candidates for two student scholarships, the Lillie B. Hamilton and Ralph H. Gavett Scholarships. The same application form is used to apply for both scholarships, and it can be found on this website on the GJCL convention page. Each chapter may nominate two candidates for these scholarships. Additionally, there is a scholarship available for teachers, the Richard A. LaFleur scholarship. The application for this scholarship is also available on the GJCL website and can be found on the Convention page. The submission deadline is April 1st; applications should be attached in an email to scholarships@gjcl.org. Applications will be reviewed by a committee appointed by the state chair. Scholarships will be awarded at the state convention.

- The Lillie B. Hamilton Scholarship was established to help any underclassman (anyone but a senior) in attending the National JCL Convention and pays for the convention packet. The criteria for this scholarship are service to the organization and financial need.
- The Ralph H. Gavett Scholarship was established to give any qualified delegate a fully-funded trip to national convention. The criteria for this scholarship are service and dedication to JCL, spirited involvement in JCL and financial need.
- The Richard A. LaFleur Scholarship was established to provide an opportunity for further educational opportunities for sponsors. It is limited to teachers of Latin, Greek or classical humanities. It may be used for a variety of educational purposes. The amount of this award is $500.

That's Entertainment

The GSCL will sponsor a talent show called That's Entertainment. Delegates will need to audition. Interested students should note the audition times in the schedule. Delegates must come prepared to audition with the best 30 seconds of their act. All costumes/stage clothing must be school dress code appropriate. All delegates chosen for the show must provide a full written copy of any lyrics, script, etc. Acts may be individual or groups. Acts will be screened closely, and only a limited number will be accepted. There is a piano at Rock Eagle, but students will need to provide their own accompaniment if it is needed.

Middle School Activities

There will be a full-program for our middle school students this year. GJCL encourages middle school students to participate in all the convention competitions for which they are prepared, but each evening we will provide them with “Middle School Only” events, including a Murder Mystery, an Ice Cream Social, and a campfire. These activities will be discussed at length at the Middle School Orientation on Friday afternoon. These students should be at these activities each evening, unless they are under the direct supervision of their sponsor or designated chaperone from their school, or at a competition, such as Certamen or Oratory. All Middle School activities will be held in Barkaloo-Rich.

Overall Convention Chapter Champion

There will be four categories of competition for the overall convention champion: small (1 – 9 student delegates), medium (10 – 29 student delegates), large (30 - 49 student delegates), and extra-large (50+ student delegates) chapters. For each division, there will be two champions. One champion will be decided based purely on the total number of sweepstakes points earned by the delegates. The second champion will be decided by an average of sweepstakes points earned by delegates.

All individual prizes for each contest from 1st to 5th will be read aloud at the Awards Assembly, and these delegates will receive their ribbons. A list of all the results from a school will be made available to sponsors at the end of convention. The top twenty-five individual convention winners will be recognized, as will the top five places in academics, creative arts, graphic arts, and Olympika. These students will receive a medal.

Two types of sweepstakes points are awarded: individual and school, and both combine to determine the Overall Convention Champion. N.B. No sweepstakes points will be awarded this year for the new Vocal Latin Competition.

All contests will receive the following sweepstakes points:

1st Place	10 points
2nd Place	8 points
3rd Place	6 points
4th Place	4 points
5th Place	2 points

Students may earn individual points for all contests, EXCEPT:

Academic Contests

There is no restriction on the number of students who may enter the contests. Contests, whenever possible will be scheduled without conflicts so that a student may enter as many different contests as he or she wishes. Although there are no limitations on the number of contestants, each teacher should make certain that students have adequately prepared themselves for the contests.

- All academic contests are written.
- Contestants are judged at five levels: Level I - Level V.
- The same exam will be administered for all levels except Latin Grammar (one for Level I, and another for Levels II – V), Reading Comprehension (one for each of the following levels: Latin I, Latin II, Advanced Prose, Advanced Poetry).
- Advanced students may take both Advanced Reading Comp exams.

- Ample time is provided for anyone planning to take all exams.
- Since the written exams are graded by an optical scanning machine, the responsibility of gridding all necessary information and of pressing hard enough for the answers to be recorded lies with each student. NO exam score sheets will be re-graded.

LATIN LITERATURE: Based upon Latin Literature, by Gian Biagio Conte.

Competitive Certamen

There are three divisions of Certamen: Novice for students in ½ or first year Latin, Intermediate for students in Latin II, and Advanced for students in Latin III and higher. No student may register for more than one level. Students may compete in a higher level of competition than their present year of Latin, but no downward movement will be allowed, e.g. Latin I students may play Intermediate, but a Latin II student may not play Novice.

Each chapter may enter only one team on each level. A team may be comprised of up to four delegates, but chapters may list up to four more alternates on the team roster. Alternates may be rotated in or out at the beginning of any round, but no substitutions will be allowed during a round.

All teams will play three 10-question rounds Friday night to determine seeding for the semi-final rounds, to be played on Saturday. These 10 question rounds will follow the national ratios as closely as possible (i.e. for novice and intermediate, the 10 questions will be 5 Language, then the other 5 will be 3 and 2 divided between mythology and history/daily life/geography; Advanced will still follow the normal ratios). The semi-final and final rounds of Certamen will consist of 20 toss-ups, worth ten points each, with two five point bonus questions for the team answering each toss-up correctly. These 20 toss-up and bonus questions will follow the national ratios. q.v.

<http://njcl.org/uploads/Certamen/AboutQuestions.pdf>

Once the top 9 teams have been selected for each level, 3 semi-final rounds will be played, the winners of each making it into the final round.

For questions about game play, team construction, timing, bonus questions, tie-breakers, sources, and potential syllabi, etc. please, cf. <http://njcl.org/pages/Certamen>.

The official national rules found at <https://app.box.com/embed/p2pclt0ojybetj5.swf> will be followed for all rounds, with the one understanding that the 3 preliminary rounds on Friday night will be 10 questions.

Creative Arts Contests

Students may enter one or more of the Creative Arts Contests; however, students may enter only once in each category, e.g., submit one slogan, one myth, choose either prose or poetry in Dramatic Interpretation. Students will compete in Level I, Level II, or Advanced, which combines Levels III and above, with the exception of English Oratory and Modern Myth, which are judged by grade level in school. Students must compete in the level/grade in which they are currently enrolled.

Students should consult the convention schedule carefully. If there seems to be a conflict, the contestant should notify the chair PRIOR to the beginning of the contest. Every effort will be made to schedule the student in both contests, e.g. early in one contest and late in another. Contestants must NOT wear anything to identify a GJCL member school (e.g. nametags, T-shirts, hats, etc.) during their Creative Arts presentations.

Placement is at the judges' discretion based on qualified entries.

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION: Participants in the Dramatic Interpretation Contest are requested to have memorized their passages thoroughly prior to their attendance at Convention. The head judge will prompt at his/her discretion. In this contest, costumes and props are NOT to be used. An introduction in English is NOT necessary and, if given, is NOT in any way to be considered in rating participants. A false start (i.e., no more than the first line) will be allowed without a point deduction. Use only texts from the www.njcl.org website.

Contestants should make sure that their movements and gestures are appropriate to the content of the presentation. We highly recommend that the student should present to a teacher prior to the final performance in order to receive feedback. A carefully memorized selection is a sine qua non. Students and advisors are reminded that a poem (Advanced Poetry Level only) must be recited in the appropriate meter, including elisions. There will be three divisions: Level ½ and I, Level II, and Advanced. At GJCL, but not NJCL: Boys may recite the girls' selection and vice versa if they so choose.

Presentations will be judged on the criteria listed below.

1. Memorization
2. Character Portrayal and Depth
3. Pronunciation
4. Enunciation
5. Voice Control and Eye Contact
6. Natural Gestures and Movement

7. Phraseology
8. Scansion (Advanced Level poetry only)

LATIN ORATORY: Schools are limited to five entrants per level, with the possibility of adding more students if slots are available. Participants in the Latin Oratory contest are requested to have memorized their passages thoroughly prior to their attendance at the convention. The head judge may prompt at his/her discretion. In this contest, costumes and props are NOT to be used. An introduction in English is NOT necessary and, if given, is NOT in any way to be considered in rating participants. A false start (i.e., no more than the first line) will be allowed without a point deduction. Use only texts from the www.njcl.org website. There will be three divisions: Level ½ and I, Level II, and Advanced.

Judges will use the following criteria:

1. Memorization
2. Pronunciation
3. Eye Contact with Audience
4. Natural Gestures and Oratorical Style
5. Voice Control and Enunciation
6. Phraseology and Interpretation

ENGLISH ORATORY: In this contest, a student composes a speech, the subject of which is the theme of the convention. You may find this year's theme on the NJCL and GJCL websites. The style should be similar to that of a classical orator.

Participants in English Oratory are requested to have memorized their speeches thoroughly prior to their attendance at the convention. In this contest, costumes and props are NOT to be used. The student may use a prompter of his own but no cue cards. Judges will NOT serve as prompters. A student's oration should be three minutes in length; a contestant will be penalized five points if his speech is less than two minutes and forty-five seconds or more than three minutes and fifteen seconds in length (including introduction). Students must compete in one of three divisions: Beginning (grades 9 and lower), Intermediate (grade 10), and Advanced (grades 11 and 12).

Judges will use the following criteria:

1. Topic (Use of theme and classics)
2. Introduction
3. Interpretation
4. Originality
5. Memorization
6. Flexibility and Control
7. Audience Contact
8. Conclusion
9. Total Effectiveness

VOCAL CONTESTS – new to GJCL!

This contest will fall into two categories: solo and ensemble. At the judges' discretion, performances may be grouped into further categories. No sweepstakes points will be awarded for this contest this year. After its addition is evaluated at this convention, sweepstakes will be considered for future convention.

Contestant(s) must submit supporting materials – music, text, description – upon arrival at convention, at the same time and place as Graphic Arts registration: 1. Music: submit one original copy of any musical piece under copyright (no photocopies), and three photocopies of the same (for the judges); 2. Text: include the Latin text, whether as part of the musical piece or separately. If the Latin text is a translation, submit the original lyrics as well, and identify the translator. 3. Provide a short description of the performance (form provided): title of piece, composer (if known), date of composition (if known), whether traditional text or original translation, whether sung solo or ensemble, whether classical or ecclesiastical pronunciation.

In this contest, costumes and props are NOT to be used. Contestant(s) may give an introduction of less than one minute. The performance of the selection may be a cappella or contestant(s) may provide his own music, including player. It is the responsibility of the contestant(s) to retrieve music and other materials before leaving the judging area. The entire presentation cannot be longer than 2 minutes and 30 seconds. The entire song selection must be in Latin. Memorized selections will be given extra consideration. The performance may be videotaped, and a model performance may be featured in “That’s Entertainment” or at the Awards Assembly.

Judges will use the following criteria:

1. Musicality (45%) – phrasing, pitch, diction, difficulty of the piece, tempo/rhythm
2. Pronunciation (30%) – accuracy, clarity, consistency (either classical or ecclesiastical)
3. Presentation (25%) – audibility, confidence, memorization, performance, overall impression

LATIN COMPOSITION: The Latin composition competition requires that students respond in a creative way to a prompt, using Latin vocabulary and syntax that is appropriate to their level of Latin. Suggested length: about a half a page (100-150 words). Originality is highly encouraged, but students must demonstrate control over the language and stay within the context of the prompt.

Judges will use the following criteria:

1. Written Expression
2. Clearly Developed Ideas
3. Syntax
4. Vocabulary
5. Conventions of Written Latin

COSTUME CONTEST: Costumes should accurately portray the character and/or period in history. All props and adornments should be integral to the costume. Originality will also be considered, but GJCL follows the national rubric that favors classical interpretation. Each contestant must also deliver a memorized one and one half minute speech or three minutes for couple/groups pertaining to his character and costume. Both the speech and costume will determine winners.

For Couples Costume, each individual will earn full points for himself, but schools will earn half the points. Justification – schools are “double-dipping” in this contest by getting sweepstakes points twice if their couples’ entry wins an award. In addition, if one couple comes from one school, and the other comes from a different school, each school will earn the appropriate (i.e. half) the sweepstakes points.

Judges will use the following criteria:

1. Authenticity
2. Neatness

3. Attractiveness
4. Craftsmanship
5. Creativity
6. Overall Effectiveness

There are 3 categories: individual, couples, and group skit. This year's costumes are:

Male	Laocoon
Female	Iphigenia
Couples	Priam & Hecuba
Group Costume/Skit	Scenes from the Trojan War

ESSAY CONTEST: This contest, reserved for AP students, is designed to allow AP students to compete in knowledge and skill based on AP Essay criteria. Schools may enter up to five students in this contest. The prompt will mimic the AP exam. The entrant is required to write a complete essay based on the prompt in the time allotted. Passages for this contest will be drawn from the current AP syllabus.

A holistic rubric based on the AP Latin guidelines will be used in rating submissions.

PRE-CONVENTION CONTEST – MODERN MYTH: The Modern Myth Contest is a pre-convention contest; all entries will be submitted before the state convention. The winning entries will be announced at the convention. The JCL member submitting the entry must attend the convention in order for his entry to win the award. Depending on the number of entries and the quality of work, the Creative Chairs have the right to combine as many categories as they feel necessary, and to award prizes accordingly. Students must compete on the GRADE LEVEL in which they are enrolled.

A student may enter only one myth. If two or more myths are entered, ALL entries from that student will be disqualified. The myth must be 500-1200 words; the total number of words must be listed on the cover sheet. Myths which have fewer than 500 words or more than 1200 words will have points deducted on the basis of 3 points per 100 words. The entry MUST be typed. The entry may be in prose or poetic form. Please follow carefully the guidelines (below) for formatting and submitting entries.

The Modern Myth must be:

1. An original myth to explain the existence of some phenomenon in nature or modern culture (it should use classical Greek OR Roman mythological character, but not a combination of both; new invented characters with classical names may be used);
2. A classical myth in modern dress or setting which should be recognizable through the plot and not from the names of the characters (the writer must identify the original myth in a postscript to the story);
3. A new myth using classical figures with a creation of minor new characters e.g., a new Hercules story.

In all categories the writer should be careful NOT to contradict existing myths. New characters and/or new adventures may be invented, but no tampering with basic traditional mythology should occur.

Entries will be judged on the following criteria:

1. Classical allusion/reference

2. Originality/Creativity
3. Theme (central idea or purpose)
4. Style, tone, coherence, etc.
5. Mechanics (accuracy in usage, grammar, spelling)
6. Overall Effectiveness

Entries should be formatted for blind judging. The first page of the submission (not seen by the judges) should be numbered page #1 and have only the following information: 1. name of the delegate; 2. name of the school; 3. name of the teacher; 4. grade enrolled; 5. word count (500-1200); and 6. title of the myth. The myth itself should begin on page # 2. In addition, each page of the myth should be numbered with the title of the myth as well as the page number: “titleofmyth-2”, “titleofmyth-3”, etc. If any of the information is omitted, points may be deducted on the basis of three (3) points per missing item. The student’s sponsor should read and approve the entry before it is submitted. Entries must be submitted electronically as “lastname_grade_titleofmyth.docx” via www.gjcl.org website link by 11:59 PM April 1st, 2017.

PRE-CONVENTION CONTEST – SLOGAN: This should be a slogan or saying in English that publicizes or promotes Latin, the Classics, or JCL. The slogan should be broadly appealing, in appropriate taste, original, and suitable to fit a bumper sticker or a button. Students should submit slogans electronically via Google Form on the www.gjcl.org website. Delegates must be in attendance at convention to win. The entry must contain the following information: 1. The slogan; 2. the delegate’s name; and 3. the full name of the delegate’s school. Slogans will be sent to judges exactly as received with all spelling, punctuation, grammatical, and typographical errors included. Entries must be submitted by 11:59 PM April 1st, 2017. The top ten slogans will be ranked by delegates voting at the convention.

Graphic Arts Contests

DO NOT LABEL ANY WORK WITH YOUR NAME OR SCHOOL!! You will be provided a form (see below) with which to register your artwork. Any Latin included in the project should be translated here. Only delegates who are present at the convention may enter. Delegates may enter as many graphic arts areas as they wish, but only one entry per area. Misspellings, inaccuracies, and incorrect information count against the student. Please check these items carefully. All categories may be further divided at the discretion of the Graphic Arts Chair. Likewise, depending on the number of entries and the quality of work, the judges have the right to combine as many categories as they feel necessary, and to award prizes accordingly.

2. Boys'/Girls' 100 yard Dash	6. Chariot Race
3. Distance Run	7. Ultimate Frisbee
4. Boys'/Girls' Softball Throw	8. Basketball
5. Boys'/Girls' Frisbee Throw

For the individual Olympika events, students will register at the events themselves. However, schools will need to register for specific Ludi events (Ultimate Frisbee, Tug-of-War, and the Chariot Race) when they register for convention attendance. The use of cleats for any Olympika or Ludi event is prohibited. There are two levels of competition for the individual Olympika events: Lower (9th grade and lower) and Upper (10th grade and above).

DASHES: These races will be held on the field. Multiple preliminary heats will be held if there are more than eight competitors. There will be a final heat to determine the top five places.

DISTANCE RUN: This run will be held on the Rock Eagle campus and will range from one to two miles. The exact route will be announced at the convention.

SOFTBALL THROW: Students will have one try each for the softball throw. Throws outside of the "foul" lines will be disqualified.

FRISBEE THROW: Students will have one try each for the frisbee throw. Throws outside of the "foul" lines will be disqualified.

TUG-OF-WAR: Each team will consist of five boys and five girls. Schools wishing to participate must pre-register as a part of online Convention registration. The tournament is single elimination. Students must wear tennis shoes, may not wear gloves or cleats, and may not wrap the rope around any part of their bodies during the event.

ULTIMATE FRISBEE: Each team will consist of six players, half of which must be girls. Further instructions will be given at the event. Please note that to ensure the safety of our students, this event may be canceled if no suitable referee may be found.

BASKETBALL: Each school team will consist of four players, half of which must be girls. Further instructions will be given at the event.

CHARIOT RACE: Chariots may enter two races: four boys pulling a girl, or four girls pulling a boy. Schools wishing to participate must pre-register as a part of online Convention registration. Recognition will be granted for the best constructed, most authentic and best looking. The following guidelines must be followed:

- The chariot is limited to two wheels. There should be a single axle.
- Three sides must be covered by ¼ inch plywood or similar material. Cardboard is prohibited.
- Chariots may only be pulled not pushed; and may be powered only by the four delegates pulling.

- Riders must wear a safety helmet of some sort.
- There must be a handle for the rider to grasp. We strongly recommend that this be an actual handle around which the rider can firmly clutch with all fingers curled, rather than just the outer top/side of the front wall.
- Pull bars MUST be of solid, rigid construction from the axle to the front-runner handles.
- The construction should not include links, ropes, strapping or other similarly flexible components connecting the runners to the chariot.
- Due to limited time and resources, delegations may only register one chariot per school.
- The school must report to one of the 2 provided chariot check in/safety runs on Saturday. The chariot must be present with a running team, rider AND helmet for safety check, but it does not have to be the same team that will pull during the actual race.
- Any chariot may be disqualified for safety concerns at the discretion of the official (those reasons include but are not limited to: no helmet; weak or no sides; a flimsy axle; poor construction).

PRE-REGISTERED LUDI EVENTS:

The SCL will reserve 4 “ghost teams” which will be filled at Convention by schools that either did not have enough team members by registration deadline or did not bring enough delegates to convention. When filling these “ghost” slots, preference will be given to small schools, which would otherwise not have had the chance to compete. Depending on the number of teams registering for Tug of War & Ultimate Frisbee, the SCL reserves the right to limit schools to one team or allow “B” teams from already registered schools.

- Props and noisemakers are allowed as long as they do not hurt anyone and do not damage property. Musical instruments are allowed.
- Cheers which insult a specific school or person are not allowed. Cheers should be positive and about why your chapter has the best spirit.
- Cheers, chants, and songs are all appropriate for roll call.
- Have fun and show everyone how much you love the Junior Classical League!

PUBLICITY:

Every GJCL chapter is encouraged to enter the NJCL National Publicity Contest. Interested chapters are simply requested to bring their publicity entries to state convention. This competition is an excellent way for chapters to represent themselves at national convention; participating chapters do not have to be present at NJCL Convention in order to win.

A publicity contest also exists at the GJCL level, so entries brought to state convention can help a chapter to win sweepstakes points and recognition for itself at state convention, along with the chance to compete at the national level!

The more chapters that compete, the more the GJCL will benefit; a competition based on the percentage of chapters that enter the National Publicity Contest also exists at national convention. Georgia can win this contest if enough chapters submit entries.

Since the purpose of the National Publicity Contest is to promote Latin to those not already aware of its value, all publicity items must be essentially about JCL and/or Latin or classical studies. All articles in this contest must have been written or initiated by the club that submits them.

Items that can be included in a chapter's publicity entry include the following:

- a photograph of the chapter's float in the Homecoming Parade
- a copy of the program from a ceremony for Latin Honor Society
- a copy of a page in the yearbook dedicated to the Latin Club chapter
- a copy of any articles about the Latin Club chapter that have appeared in the school newspaper, PTSA newsletters, etc.
- the URL of the chapter's page on the school website

More suggestions and ideas are available on the NJCL website. For questions, contact Randy Fields at membership@gjcl.org.

Schools MUST include a cover sheet containing the name of their chapter and sponsor as well as the school address. This sheet should also include the sponsor's home phone number or personal e-mail address in case clarification of an item is needed. In addition, all items submitted should contain the chapter's name and state.

Schools entering more than 5 items should go to <http://njcl.org/pages/njcl-publicity-contest> for guidelines on how to organize your entries.

Any falsification of entries by a school will result in that school being ineligible for the entire contest for that year and may jeopardize the school's good standing.

For more information on the contest and its requirements, please read the "Rules and Scoring Guidelines" sheet, available on the NJCL website: <http://njcl.org/pages/njcl-publicity-contest>.

The regulations listed on the website may seem daunting; however, the GJCL desires to make the process easier. Therefore, chapters simply need to bring their publicity items, along with the aforementioned cover sheet, to state convention. All entries must follow the NJCL guidelines and cannot be submitted electronically; please bring hard copies. The entries will then be packaged and submitted into the National Publicity Contest by the GJCL Officers. Every entry will benefit not only the chapter, but the GJCL as a whole.

OPEN CERTAMEN: The purpose of Open Certamen is to allow those delegates without much previous practice the chance to experience Certamen without the pressure of competition. There will be no “school” teams. Each team, randomly selected, will have members from three to four schools. There will be three levels of competition: Latin I, Latin II, and Advanced (Latin III and above). Anyone chosen to be among the players on an official school Certamen team participating at this convention is ineligible for this event. The designated purpose of Open Certamen is to allow those delegates without much previous practice the chance to experience Certamen on a fun level, without the pressure of Competitive Certamen. Exceptions may be made at convention on an individual basis determined by the Open Certamen chair. Winners in all levels will receive ribbons. All persons wishing to play Open Certamen will be asked to confirm their desire to play by registering with the Chair on Friday afternoon.

IMPROMPTU ART: This contest is designed to challenge a participant’s artistic skills by asking the contestant to create a piece of art extemporaneously! Although materials will be available, contestants may bring the following items: pastels, charcoals, watercolors, and brushes. Upon arrival at the contest, each artist will receive six or seven items representing a classical theme. Sweepstakes points will not be given for this event.

Bazaar

The purpose of the bazaar is to provide an opportunity for JCL and SCL groups to raise funds to accomplish their JCL/SCL projects, and for GJCL Convention participants to obtain goods promoting the JCL and the Classics. Vendors at the bazaar may be GJCL or GSCL members or sponsors, selling for the benefit of local, state, or national JCL and/or SCL organizations.

All items sold must be in good taste. The sale of consignment or re-sale items is permitted with the profit of the sale going to the JCL/SCL group. Generally items are available from $5 to $15.

Please note: NO food items may be sold at the bazaar. Those who would like a table at the Bazaar should let Liz Bouis (lizbouis@me.com) know. If you would like your item(s) to be publicized on the web, please send a digital photograph and description to Patrick Yaggy at Patrick_Yaggy@Gwinnett.k12.ga.us. He will post a link to on the GJCL website highlighting all items submitted. Photos will be available at www.yaggyslatin.com/bazaar.

Community Service Projects:

GJCL will again offer a Community Service Project for convention delegates. We will be making and donating dog toys for the Humane Society of Atlanta. This will occur during all four Workshops Sessions.

Chapters are asked to donate old t-shirts, which the delegates will make into dog toys. Roll will be taken at each session. Schools that participate and/or donate items will receive “extra credit” for the spirit contest. Sponsors, please plan to bring a pair of scissors (preferably fabric scissors) to use during this project.

To replace the Rent-A-Roman, we will also have a Coin Wars competition. All proceeds raised will be donated to Children’s Health Care of Atlanta. Each GJCL officer will be responsible for collecting money for the Coin Wars throughout State Convention. The rules are:

- Each coin counts for positive points
- Each dollar bill counts for negative points
- The amount of points is determined by the value of the coin/bill in cents
e.g. 25¢ = +25 points; $1 bill = -100 points

The Coin Wars will end at 2:00 pm on Saturday afternoon, and the points of each officer will be counted and totaled. Whichever officer has the least amount of points will be subjected to the punishment as predetermined by the officer board.

Non-Convention Contests:

GJCL offers a number of Non-Convention Contests which means all GJCL Member Schools may enter, but attendance at the GJCL Convention is not required for prizes. The winners will be announced at the Convention. These contests include:

- Community Service
- Membership Contest
- Photo of the Month
- Video Contest
- Webpage

Please consult www.gjcl.org for details on each of these contests.
